

David T. Vincent

July 16, 2018

Philomath resident David Thomas Vincent passed peacefully at his home on July 16th at the age of 82. “Dave” as he was known to his friends and colleagues was a graduate of Philomath High School and served in the U.S. Army. After the Army, he earned his Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees in Fisheries and Wildlife from Oregon State University. In his professional career, Dave spent his life working as a forest and woodlands manager for North Side Lumber and Diamond B Lumber companies. Dave will be remembered for his passion and enthusiasm for life, family and friends. He was an avid fisherman and outdoorsman, as well as a fervent fan of the Oregon State Beavers and Philomath Warriors. He was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Corvallis. David was preceded in death by his mother Eva Vincent and father and Walter Vincent, brothers Bob and Walt Vincent, and sisters Mae Reddington and Alice Lowden. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Norma J. Vincent, daughters Pamela Gonzales, Angela McCubbins, stepdaughter Jan Pendleton, sons Ryan Vincent, Tim Vincent, grandsons Parker Baumgartner, Toby White, Gabe White, Caleb Gonzales, granddaughters Hyatt Vincent, Tegan Vincent, Cassandra Benway, Audra Birch-Vincent and multiple great grandchildren. David was laid to rest at Mount Union Cemetery on July 19th, with Pastor Bill Knopp of the First Baptist Church of Corvallis presiding.

“ My best memories of Dave were his waffles and when he would say "Hell of a deal!!" every time we would share good news with him as a kid. I grew up close friends with his youngest son and spent a lot of time at their house. Dave always made me feel welcome. Thanks for being a positive influence in my youth.

“ Dave was one of a kind. As a young man and friend of Ryan's he gave me opportunities I wouldn't have had otherwise, like trips to Sunriver and Mt. Bachelor. I always was in awe of his outgoing personality and learned from Dave that we should share whatever we can with as many as we can. Connie and I send our love a prayers to the entire family.
