

Dawn E. Madden

August 31, 1950 - July 10, 2018

Dawn E. Madden, 67, of Corvallis, Oregon, passed away unexpectedly, July 10, 2018, following challenging surgery while in California. She was surrounded by family who will miss her greatly.

Dawn was born and raised in western Washington, the youngest of four girls. In 1967 she married Rick and they had two children, a son Matthew and a daughter Shawna. In later life she moved to Palm Springs, CA, where she met and married Jim Madden.

Following Jim's death Dawn moved back to the northwest to Corvallis, OR. She loved bright colors and was known for her artistic flare with home decorating, real estate, and fashion, earning her living in these areas.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and a grandson. Dawn is survived by her son, daughter, stepson Christopher, three grandsons, three sisters, brothers-in-law, nieces, and nephews.

Dawn's family wishes to extend a special "Thank you" to her surgeons, doctors, and nurses at Stanford University Medical Center for their professional, loving care, especially during her final day.

Dawn frequently visited her sister's home for morning coffee. She was a favorite of Lucy, the family golden retriever, who would anxiously wait at the window looking for the arrival of Dawn's red convertible.

Her remains will be interred with her husband Jim at Arlington National Cemetery in Washington D.C.

To honor Dawn's great love of animals, donations may be made to your local animal shelter.

There will be no public services. At Dawn's request, private family celebrations of her life will be conducted.

Goodbye Mom, sister, and friend. We love you.

Please leave condolences and memories for the family at www.mchenryfuneralhome.com.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Dawn's family, and loved ones. Dawn will be missed in Woodland Park. A kind, caring member of the community, Dawn will be missed at the Park Social functions, which she attended many. So glad that Dawn had the chance to enjoy the picnic with many friends last month.
Our Heartfelt Condolences,

“ My husband and I send our love, condolences and prayers to her family. Dawn was one of our favorite customers, always so loving and kind to us. No matter what she was going through, she always had a smile on her face. I have very fond memories of visiting with her. She was such an encouraging human being. She will be missed dearly.
Much love,

“ to the family of Dawn, I am so sorry for what you are going through. may you find comfort in the words of Isaiah 25:8 where our loving God promises to “wipe away the tears from all faces” and “swallow up death forever”.
