Larry married Donna Darlene (Weil) Blus , April 25, 1964 in North Platte, NE. The couple celebrated their 50th anniversary in 2014 by renewing their vows. They were married 56 years.

Larry And Donna have three children: Denise (Kevin) Cossa Tigard, OR; Emily (Kenneth) Tantare Portland, OR; and Daniel Blus Salem, OR. Larry is survived by grandchildren: Sarah Tantare Seattle, WA; Julia Tantare Portland, OR; and Caitlin Cossa Tigard, OR. Larry attended Tilden Illinois Elementary and graduated from Marissa Illinois Township High School, Class of 1951. He served in the US Army from 1953-1955, earning the rank of corporal. He moved on to college, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL in 1959; followed by a Master's degree in 1963.

Larry joined the Army during the Korean War and used the GI bill to enroll at Southern Illinois University where he became the first person in the Blus family to get a college education. Immediately after he obtained his bachelor's degree, he studied and got his master's degree. He used these degrees in Zoology and Botany to study birds, working for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service as a leading biologist researching how DDE and DDT affected the eggshells of brown pelicans. He was published in countless books and papers and testified before Congress against the use of certain toxic pesticides that eventually contributed to restrictions on the use of DDT. He published nearly 100 papers in scientific journals and chapters in scientific books.

Larry began his professional work experience as a research biologist for the Nebraska Fish & Game Commission 1963-1966. He worked as a wildlife research biologist 31 years for U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service from 1966-1997.

Larry was part of a large number of civic and religious organizations. “ To Donna and family of Larry, We are deeply saddened by your loss. I enjoyed working with Larry as a fellow scientist while at the Patuxent Wildlife Research Center in MD and later doing some field studies with him out west. He was a pioneer scientist for his exemplary work on the toxicity of organochlorine insecticides on birds. I learned a lot from him about conducting field studies. Larry was such a totally nice person to be around. He had a natural sense of humor and a genuine concern for others and was quick to spot inequities where he felt people had been treated unfairly. He will be sorely missed by all of us. We again extend our deepest sympathy to all of you. Dave and Suzie Hoffman

“ I loved Larry, and loved helping care for him at Regency park. He was so sweet to me and joked about getting on Farmers.com to find me a good husband. Lol We would break out in song at times and he was always kind to me, even when he was cranky, or in pain. He was a very kind Man who will be missed greatly! Hugs to you Larry, Love Wendy Roberts (your favorite female caregiver)

“ I was blessed to have Larry's two delightful granddaughters, Sarah and Julia, in my classroom at Raleigh Hills. The frosting on the cake was that they brought Larry with them. Even after the girls moved on, for years Larry continued to volunteer with my first and second graders. Beyond being a masterful teacher with an unending wealth of knowledge, Larry was a beautiful human being. He had a natural rapport with children reflected in his twinkling smile, gentle demeanor, and endless patience. Fond memories of Larry will forever live in my heart. I send my deepest sympathy and love to his family.

“ To Donna and family of Larry Blus, we are truly saddened of the passing of your wonderful husband. He was a really great person. When Dan & Clinton were growing up, Clinton really recalls the Rose bowl that the three of them went to, wonderful experience & good times. Yes, all our lives have moved forward & lots of happenings in between. Oh, how the Lord has blessed all of us in many ways. The angels are constantly over us, guiding us in all ways & every direction. Keep strong faith & tell everyone hello from us. Email me at carmel_97333@yahoo.com-----Carol McNaughtan . Mel & I live in the same home & have 4 grandchildren. Clint & Heidi live in Vancouver.

“ Larry was a good friend and always a joy to be with. I posted a pic of Larry, Donna, Barb and I, with Mooyoung Kim and his wife Anna Myeong and their daughter Grace. We The 4 of us traveled to San Francisco to see Anna give a concert at Grace Cathedral. It was a fun weekend and a great visit with a group of friends. Grace was named after Grace Lutheran in Corvallis where Anna played while Mooyoung went to school at OSU. We all met there and have gone our own way since. But that pic is a very good memory. Donna and Barb were in the OK Coral together and did many concerts around Corvallis. Larry was one of the best groupies. Helped and supported there service to the community. We will miss him very much. Ron & Barb Manbeck
