

Virginia Alberta Jager

March 14, 1922 - March 7, 2017

Virginia “Ginny” Jager, 94, passed away on March 7, 2017, at the Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center following a brief illness. She was surrounded by loving family members and caring friends throughout her brief stay.

Ginny was born on March 14, 1922, in Yoncalla, Oregon. She grew up in Rosebud, Alberta, on a small farm. At fourteen her family moved to Washington and she graduated from Columbia High School in White Salmon, Washington.

In 1948 Ginny married Harlan C. Jager. They had two loving sons, Duane and Lee. She was blessed with four grandchildren, Casey, Colby, Melanie and Jesse, and four great-grandchildren. Her nieces, Terrie Andrews and Patsy Wood, were the daughters she never had. Other loving nieces and nephews and their families were also close to her heart.

Ginny was in the beauty business for over 30 years beginning with a beauty shop in White Salmon, Washington, and finally as owner of Ginny’s Salon of Beauty in Corvallis for over two decades.

She was an avid gardener and got excited each spring when she could visit the local nurseries for flowers and vegetables to plant in her garden. Even though they sometimes let her down, she never gave up her love of the Seattle Mariners and Portland Trailblazers. Ginny also loved spending time at her cabin on the Alsea River fishing, gardening and playing cards with friends.

Ginny is survived by Lee Jager, Duane Jager, Heather Peterson Jager, her four grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and nine nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harlan Jager.

She will be forever missed by all who knew her.

There will be a viewing from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday, March 10, at McHenry Funeral Home. A private burial will occur at Twin Oaks Memorial Gardens. An open house is planned for noon Saturday, March 11, at Ginny's home in Corvallis.
