

Agnes Glab

June 10, 1924 - March 3, 2011

Agnes Glab died Thursday, March 3, at Sacred Heart Medical Center RiverBend in Eugene. She was 86.

Agnes was born in Chicago, Ill., to Joseph and Agnes Sascher Halper. She had two sisters and seven half-siblings. Agnes graduated from Harper High School in Chicago, Ill.

She married Henry Glab in 1952. They had one daughter.

Agnes worked as a secretary. She worked most of her career at Illinois Bell, retiring with more than 30 years of service. She lived in Chicago until relocating to Oregon in 1996. She lived in Corvallis, and then moved to Eugene last year.

Agnes was loved for her razor-sharp wit, her big heart and her skill at pinochle.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Christina and Timothy Bennett; step-grandson, Josh Bennett; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Henry, and all of her siblings.

Memorial contributions can be made to St. Vincent de Paul Food Bank in care of McHenry Funeral Home.

A funeral Mass will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 12, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Corvallis. Arrangements are by McHenry Funeral Home.
