“ Agnes was a hard women to get close to. I really didn't get to know her until later in my marriage to her son Dale. Dale in my eyes was the best gift she could have given me. She did right by him and he in return is a wonderful husband. Thank you mom for that special gift. Thank you for trusting him to my care.

Agnes shared a dream with us on one of our visits. She said that Mel and Teddy were sitting on the end of her bed and for some reason that unnerved her. I told her it was their way of letting her know they were waiting for her and would be there when it was time for her to join them and she wouldn't be alone. I know it was a wonderful reunion. (And it proves to me that dogs do go to heaven) I will miss her. Mona Goetzinger
