

Agnes C. McGillivray

August 22, 1916 - May 24, 2014

Agnes was born Aug. 22, 1916, to Patrick and Catherine Dubé in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada, and spent her formative years in Kelowna, British Columbia, Canada, moving to the Vancouver area in her late teens.

Agnes taught school in Burnaby, B.C., Canada, and in San Jose, California, where she specialized in special education.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Cliff McGillivray, and is survived by a daughter, Corinne Harland of Philomath; a son, Doug McGillivray of Monroe; a sister, Charlotte Smith of Kelowna; seven grandchildren; and a host of great-grandchildren.

She was a Master Gardener and loved to spend time tending to her gardens and reading.

In remembrance of Agnes, family and friends are invited to gather at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 7, at the family home, 25483 Springhill Drive in Monroe.

“ My deepest condolences to Agnes' family. Take comfort in memories, family and friends, as well as the hope for the future given to us by our loving God, Jehovah. Revelation 21:4 promises that "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." God promises to return our earth to a beautiful paradise condition, and he yearns to bring back ones who have died to life on that earth. May "the God of all comfort" give you strength, and may you take comfort in the memories of Agnes' life.

Agnes was a wonderful lady. She was my Great Aunt. Though I did not have the privilege to meet her in person, she and I shared years of conversations, laughs and even a few tears. She will be missed. I look forward to seeing her again someday. Guaranteed there will be hugs all around! I love you Agnes!
