

Agness Hardin

December 15, 1921 - May 11, 2010

Agness C. "Grandma Aggie" Hardin died May 11, 2010 at home in Monroe, Oregon. She was 88. She was born in Metolius, OR on December 15, 1921 to Homer and Hetta Alexander. Agness was raised and educated in Central Oregon and graduated from Redmond High School. She married Joseph E. Hardin in Terrebonne on Oct. 6, 1940. They moved to Monroe in 1942 where she has lived since. She worked at home and volunteered with the local schools. She enjoyed needlework, cooking, the Oregon Coast and was the longest living resident of Monroe.

Preceded in death by her husband in 2002; brothers, Nile, Orlie and George; sisters, Fannie Regnier and Zella McDaniel. Agness is survived by her son: Joe (Norene) of Monroe; daughters, Sharon (Jerry) Ballard of Monroe, Nila Jo Malcom of Portland; grandchildren: Don, Scott, Angela, Susan, Robin, Wendy, Brian and Katie; 12 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 11:00 am, Monday, May 17, 2010 in the Bellfountain Community Church. Burial will follow at Bellfountain Cemetery. The casket will be open for an hour prior to the service. Memorial contributions may be made to the Monroe Public Library Fund in care of McHenry Funeral Home. 206 NW 5th St. Corvallis, Ore. 97330.