“ A little late to this . . . many fond memories of Andrew in high school. The smartest guy I knew (perfect SAT). He introduced me to much good music. Wish I was in the photo on this page that includes Andrew, Steve and Wesley. We hung out quite a bit. Mike Laing

“ On 28 October, 1963, a Kirchen was born. Someone decided to name him Andrew Brian. I met him in 1985 at Everybody's Pizza in Atlanta where we worked in the kitchen. Over the years, we had many adventures. Eventually he moved to Oregon - Eden at the end of the Trail. He met many new friends here, and he inspired many people to think for themselves. Whenever I needed a valid opinion about an upcoming ballot measure, Andrew could tell me the facts.

“ My deepest condolences to the Kirchen family, friends & co-workers of Andrew. I've enjoyed the years of travel & experiences Andrew & I had, visiting Maui, string summit, pickathon, camping, homebrew competitions, concerts, & dragging him to a Ralph Steadman art show, (which I think he enjoyed). I often would ask his opinion, and receive a candid, honest one, and agreed with him 99% of the time. He is missed.

So sad to hear about Andrew. String Summit, camping on the North Umpqua, the longest legislative session in Oregon history... I think I dragged him to art show once too. I hope there's good fishing in the afterlife.
