“ Angie was such a wonderful, caring person that would call with Kermit and Kevin Teo often to share their life with our family. I always enjoyed speaking with her on the phone due to living far away, but was inspired and encouraged by her kindness, strong faith, and compassion. I continue to be inspired by her to walk by faith and be courageous and generous. We will miss her and are praying for Kermit and Kevin Teo as they grieve this great loss.

“ Angie will be missed by so many friends and family. She was such a loving and caring sister-in-law and was always interested about our family and the activities of our daughters. Angie was a wonderful example of leading a Christian life and loving and treating others with compassion. It was exciting to witness her knowledge and love of birds and bats and her gift of sharing that interest with others. Our hearts are with Kermit and Kevin Teo.

“ It was inspirational to observe, both up close and from afar, how dedicated and loyal Angie was to her life partner, Kermit, and her two sons, Kevin Teo and Matthew. For as long as I can remember, she did everything she could with their comfort and well-being first. Throughout the years, she was steadfast in her Catholic faith and helped others within her church community draw nearer to our Lord and Savior. For my own family, she was always interested in what we were doing, what my daughters' interests were/are as they grew into the modern women they are today, and constantly sent us information on birding, bats, conservation, Christianity, and other pertinent topics that would make us a better family unit. It was always educational to speak with Angie. And though we weren't able to visit in person that many times, we knew we were always a wonderful phone call away from her and her beloved boys. We will miss her greatly and know Kermit and Kevin Teo can rejoice knowing she is now in the loving arms of Jesus.

“ Angie was a wonderful aunt. She was always so kind and caring, calling and sending letters throughout our entire life to show how much she loved and cared for us. Whenever she called, I always felt how genuinely interested in my life she was. I enjoyed hearing stories and updates from her life as well. We will miss her and have her in our hearts, always.

“ I have been so blessed to have learned so much from Angeline about how to grow closer to Our Lord, deepening my spiritual life with Him. I spent time with her in following her leadership in devotion to the Divine Mercy. She taught me the importance of prayer and fasting in strengthening me in the Holy Spirit. Her leadership role in setting up the St. Mary Adoration Chapel 25 years ago has been an enormous blessing to our Corvallis and Philomath community. I have begun praying to her (as one of the newest saints in Heaven) to guide me more fully in loving God!

“ Although we didn't see each other as often as I would have liked, I will always remember connecting with Angie on the phone and through letters over the years. She was curious about my life and always willing to share about hers. We will miss you, Angie. Sending love to Kermit and Kevin Teo as they navigate this difficult time.

“ Angie was a wonderful sister-in-law, wife, and mother. Sadly, we did not see her often due to the physical distance but her conversations and letters showed us how much she loved us. Angie was brilliant and engaging with her extended family. She was very devout in her faith and we are comforted by the fact that she is now home with our Heavenly Father. I will always have Angie in my heart and forever miss her.

“ Angie was such a kind and caring light in this world. She was always very invested in her family, including many nieces and nephews across the country. Regardless of physical distance, she made me feel loved and known in our conversations and many letters over the years. She was warm, excited to always learn something new, and was very devout in her faith. It gives me great comfort to know that she is with our Heavenly Father, rejoicing that she is finally home. We love you Angie and will miss you dearly!
