“ I didn't know Ann for a long time but the summers we shared walks, dogs, dinners and books were special. David and I took Ann out in our boat to scatter Tom's ashes in the strait just in front of their house. A bright light has gone out with her passing.

“ I did Ann's hair for years when she lived in Friday Harbor. I missed her when she moved to Corvallis. I'm so sad to hear of her passing. So sorry for her family. But they were so blessed to have such a wonderful woman for their mom.

“ Ann and I were "bloody buddy" sisters, best friends in grade school at St. Barnabas School in Long Beach. We played together every day. We pricked our fingers with a pin and signed a paper that we were friends; we buried it under the patio of her childhood home. She was a generous, fun, funny, talented, courageous friend. I loved to see her smile slowly begin on her face. May she rest in peace.
