“ She was my unsung hero, my best friend, and most of all she was my mother who was so great to me and helped me more than anyone I know. She was the one who understood me and the one who made my days better when I thought it was the worst day of my life. She was and will always be my everything, I miss her so much there's not a day that goes by that I don't think about her. When she left my heart and another part left with her. Still to this day it feels so unreal and I can't believe my everything is gone. I love you mom and I will keep being strong because you stayed strong for me for as long as you could thank you for being the best mother I could ever ask for. There's not a single person in this universe that could ever take your place. I love you mom, always smile I wish I could just talk to you and see you one last time, Rest In Peace mom I love you,

Love Always, Sarah Watts
