“ I first met Anne at the bank where I work. She has been a loyal customer and friend for many years and a bright spot in my day when she would come in. Anne frequently had flowers sent to me at work which even further brightened my day. It was her sweet way of saying "Thank You". She was always so good to me and so kind. I had the honor of being her friend away from work and was able to accompany her to some of her appointments. She always wished I had more time to come and visit and I always wished I could too. Anne was an intelligent and beautiful lady and I already miss her so much. Her son Sean took excellent care of her in their home and I was able to see and visit with her the Sunday before she passed away. I am so thankful for that sweet visit and the memories of her.
