“ I have to echo Wayne Johnson's sentiment., "Barb Dixion was a wonderful person." Barb and I started at LBCC in 1968 as some of the first hired instructors. Since we were all scattered in temporary venues, our path of friendship did not develop until we were finally all located on the newly completed campus. Barb became involved in administrative positions, and I worked for her directly and indirectly until my retirement in 1995. Barb was honest and forthright in her administrative roles and also a peacemaker. In many situations, she was the glue that held things together under adverse circumstances. A great lady that contributed much to the foundational growth of LBCC. John W. Alvin - Welding Department

“ Barbara Dixon was a wonderful person!!! I worked in a role that focused on the improvement of high school vocational programs. One effort focused on connecting the high school programs with LBCC. Barb was my initial contact and we developed a friendship through our work together. When she would call me, she often greeted me with "this is your Mother." We worked very closely on the annual Skills Contest. I always enjoyed working with her. We maintained contact after she retired and particularly after I retired. I will really miss Barb.
