

Bette Landergen

July 4, 1929 - September 22, 2008

Bette Lee Landergen, age 79, died Sept. 22 at the Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Corvallis.

She was born July 4, 1929, in Tewksbury, Mass., to Alfred and Dorothy Webber Treadwell.

Bette was raised and educated in Tewksbury, Mass. In 1960, she married Deveen Landergen and later, in 1975, they moved from Bishop, Calif., to Corvallis. Here she worked for 17 years in the Benton County Circuit Court under Judge Mengler. She retired in 1991 and kept active playing golf, riding and showing horses, walking, taking trips to Spirit Mountain and spending time with family and friends. She was especially fond of her horse Bint Déjà vu, an Arabian mare, and her dog, Sammy, a bichon frisse.

She is survived by her husband, Deveen, of Corvallis; daughter and son-in-law Beth and Gene Bonham of Corvallis; stepson and his wife, Doug and Mona Hoselton of Corvallis; and brother Ernest Treadwell of New Hampshire. Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, in the McHenry Funeral Home chapel. The casket will be open for one hour prior to the funeral for visitation. Private burial will be at Oak Lawn Memorial Park.

Contributions can be made to Benton Hospice Service in care of the McHenry Funeral Home, 206 N.W. Fifth St., Corvallis, OR 97330.
