

Bev Beelart Halpin

October 10, 1958 - December 12, 2013

Beverly Ava Beelart Halpin, “Bev” died Thursday, December 12th at her home in Jackson, Wyoming. Bev was born in O’Niell, Nebraska to parents Joseph and Mary Ann Beelart. When she was four years old, the family moved to the Corvallis area. Bev attended Corvallis schools and was active in sports and 4-H. She attended Linn Benton Community College where she received her Culinary Arts degree. She became the head chef at Lost Creek Ranch in Moose Wyoming.

Bev is preceded in death by her father, Joseph Beelart. She is survived by her daughter Nicole (Anthony) Uhl; her mother, Mary Ann Beelart; siblings Joe Jr., Don, Jane Shad, Kenny and Rita Yother; and many nieces and nephews, along with a host of friends and relatives.

A memorial mass is scheduled for 10:30 am, Monday, January 20, 2014 at St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Corvallis. Father John Henderson will officiate.