

Bonnie Boyd Pfaffengut

October 14, 1927 - November 18, 2014

Oct. 14, 1927 — Nov. 18, 2014

Bonnie Boyd Pfaffengut, 87, died Tuesday in Corvallis.

Bonnie was born on Oct. 14, 1927, to Irwin B. and Marguerite O. Wenger Thorpe. She had one sibling. Bonnie married Alvin Pfaffengut on Nov. 10, 1945, in North Dakota. The couple had three children, Susan, Sandra and Stephen. Bonnie was a homemaker. She enjoyed her pets, gardening, knitting and camping. She loved the Lord and was a woman of great faith. She could aptly be described as a prayer warrior.

She will be remembered as a loving mother and grandmother who would say “Ish!” to her grandchildren who teased her. She also spent time tutoring them and teaching them when they needed her help with their studies. She told everyone great stories of the old days.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her husband, Alvin, who died in 1999; and her beloved sister, Mary Jane. She is survived by her children, Susan Hamon, Sandra and Joe Jeffers, and Stephen and Rosemary Pfaffengut; 13 grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren.

A visitation is set for 1 to 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 21, at McHenry Funeral Home. A funeral service will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22, at the funeral home. Burial at Bellfountain Cemetery will follow the funeral service. Please leave your thoughts and memories for the family at www.mchenryfuneralhome.com.

“ Sandy and Susan, My heart goes out to you and your family. Your Mom was a lovely lady. Although we only knew her for a few months, I always enjoyed stopping by and checking in on her when we visited my Mom. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dean Stephen, Susan, Sandy and all of your spouses and kids. Pleas know that our prayers are with you and you mourn the loss of your mom/grandma. She was always so good to send cards and call and let you know she was thinking of you. Wish I could have seen her one more time. What a beautiful picture of her. Love to all. Maureen and Eileen
