Bryan Lane Brooks

December 19, 1978 - March 24, 2025

If you knew him, you knew a one of a kind man, a true treasure.

If he was your friend, you knew true loyalty, honor, and a feeling of great admiration.

His veneration and belief in every day miracles, no matter how small, always showed.

“ Bryan was always a kind and bright soul. He lit up those around him. He saw the good side in things. He was always looking out for those he loved and cared about. He will be loved and remembered by those he was close with. He always had a unique perspective and I will miss talking with him about anything.

He really did have a unique perspective on life. Everyday was a gift to him. Even if the view was of an overpass or a junkyard he'd say, "Isn't that beautiful?" He could see beauty in things that others couldn't. I will miss that perspective.
I love you Bryan Lane Brooks. Always will!!!!

“ There has never been anyone like him and there never will be. He was a true gentleman. He is deeply missed. We have never seen a man love and cherish his wife more than he did. Our deepest condolences.

Yes he was that true gentleman. He loved life. He loved people. He was gentle and kind.
Thank you for being our friend.

“ I'll admit, I only got to meet Bryan once, but oh boy did that one time make such a huge impact on me!

I met Bryan shortly after him and Amber got their apartment. Bryan was just aglow while showing me his kitchen and the new work table he put in there. He was so excited to share that he'd started collecting houseplants and ushered me over to see how well they were doing.

Even though he'd never met me before, he wrapped me in huge, accepting, loving hugs that refilled my soul. His unbridled love of life came through in that moment and it was beautiful.

Bryan, I hope you can see now, how many lives you touched, just by being yourself. Bryan, I hope you know, there are people who felt love because of you.

You will definitely be missed.
