

C. Hayden

February 20, 1939 - March 30, 2008

C. Stanley Hayden died March 30 at home in LaPine. He was 69. Stan was born on Feb. 20, 1939, in Corvallis to Jasper and Wanda (Barkley) Hayden. He grew up in Alsea and graduated from Alsea High School in 1957. When he was 20, he moved to Alaska and worked on the oil pipeline with heavy equipment (mostly off-road dump trucks). In 1985 he moved to southeast Alaska and drove log trucks. Stan enjoyed hunting and fishing and retired in 2001 to LaPine.

He is survived by a brother, Neil Hayden of Lebanon, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be 1 p.m. Thursday, April 3, in the Alsea Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of McHenry Funeral Home.
