“ Caitlyn painted fairytale themed rocks for Corvallis Preschool Co-op children and hid them in the playground for them to discover. So many smiles as more than a dozen children hunted for the treasure and after used the rocks in dramatic play telling stories in classroom and then at their homes. Caitlyn would only except a handmade card from the children as a thank you.

I had the pleasure of visiting with her and her son in the park on a few occasions. He was the apple of her eye. I remember one time they stopped briefly to talk with me and show off their costumes and elaborate face-painting that Caitlyn had done before heading to the library to participate in Halloween activities. They were both beaming ❤️

Rest In Peace Caitlyn. I will remember your gentle smile and kindness.

Caitlyn was a beautiful woman, doting mother of 3 children. I was blessed to have had the pleasure of knowing her and her children. Caitlin had amazing talent and cared for others before herself. I just found out about her passing yesterday evening while online and cannot believe that she is really gone. I only live 1 block from where she was hit and killed. If only I had known she was so close, I could have called her in for a visit and maybe she would still be alive 😭 Now those beautiful babies will have to grow up never really knowing what an incredible, talented and caring woman that she was. My deepest sorrow and condolences to the family. R.I.P. SWEET CAITLYN. UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN , MY FRIEND! 💔😭
