

Carl E. Hermansen

September 10, 1926 - April 7, 2016

Born in Philomath to Arnold and Mabel (Borton) Hermansen, Carl's youth was spent in Summit and Philomath. He graduated from Corvallis High School in 1944. Carl was captain and fullback of the Corvallis High School football team and played varsity basketball. Carl received a football scholarship to Oregon Agricultural College (OSU) until an injury sidelined him.

Carl served in the Army during World War II in Okinawa and Korea.

He married Shirley M. Whiteside on May 3, 1952; they eloped to Reno, Nevada. They were married 53 years. Carl worked for Rex Clemons at the mill for 13 years.

Carl and Shirley bought the Lebanon Motor Vu Drive In Theater in 1975. Carl and Shirley successfully ran the Motor Vu for 30 years with family and coworkers that became family. They enjoyed retirement by traveling in their motor home throughout the southwestern United States.

He is survived by children, Catherine (Bill) Korenko of Guam, Mark Hermansen of Albany, Carla (Stephan) Friedt of Corvallis; grandchildren Kimberly and Allyn Korenko, and Stephanie and Katie Friedt; and sister-in-laws Roberta Leonhardy. and Marian Hermansen

He was preceded in death by wife, Shirley; brothers Robert and Eugene; and sister Sybil. A visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday, April 14, at McHenry Funeral Home. A graveside service to be at 2 p.m. Friday, April 15, at Oaklawn Memorial Park in Corvallis.
