

Caroline Mae Lindh

March 12, 2013 - March 16, 2013

Caroline was born March 12, 1931 in McMinnville, Oregon. Her father was Jacob DeJong and mother Carol Amelia Loose DeJong. She grew up on the family farm in Sheridan and received her education 1 – 8 at Ballston grade school and graduated from Sheridan High in 1948. She came to Corvallis that same year and studied at Oregon State University the next two years. She was married to Lowell W. Lindh in 1953 and together they raised their two daughters.

Caroline had many hobbies and devoted her time raising her two daughters. She loved gardening, knitting, crocheting and playing the piano. Music was of great interest throughout her life. She studied piano and singing in choral groups while attending college. She was employed at OSU Federal Credit Union for 16 years.

Caroline is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 58 years, Lowell Lindh; her parents and her brother Jim DeJong. She is survived by her daughter and son in law Jacquelyn and Bernard Lindh of Walnut Creek, Ca; daughter and son in law Terri R. and Ken Avery of Corvallis; granddaughter Katie Keim; grandson Jonathan Lindh; brother Richard DeJong; sisters in law Evelyn DeJong and Rosemary DeJong; many nieces and nephews and cousins also survive.

A graveside service is planned for 10:00 am, Monday Marcy 25th at Oak Lawn Memorial Park in Corvallis. Pastor Bob Weinberger will officiate. A reception will follow at 11:00 am, at the home of Terri and Ken Avery.
