“ God called an angel home on Independence Day to reunite with Grandpa Dale. We treasure your smile and shared memories: Patrick's wedding, pumpkin adventures, births, birthday celebrations, and the fruits of your green thumb. We are blessed Melissa married into your precious family. Thank you for nurturing others with your values of God, family, and friends, along with simple joys like fishing. Your gift of beauty, both inside and out, will long live in the generations sparked by you and Dale.

Rest in peace, dearest Sally. Our prayers of sympathy and love are sent to those left behind to emulate your zest for life. You will not be forgotten.
