

Christina Bousquet-Washburn

February 16, 1964 - March 18, 2012

Christina M. Bousquet-Washburn died in her sleep on Sunday at her apartment in Corvallis. She was 48 years old.

The daughter of Paul and Marilyn Bousquet, she was born in Los Angeles and grew up in Scotch Plains, N.J., and Corvallis. She graduated from Crescent Valley High School and Linn-Benton Community College. She joined the U.S. Navy and served as a Naval Aviation Air Traffic Controller. During this time, she met Chief Petty Officer Jeff Washburn. They were married at the U.S. Naval Air Base in Reykjavik, Iceland.

Survivors include her parents, Paul and Marilyn; her children, Stephanie, Jessica and Amanda; two grandchildren; and her brother, Jim, and his wife, Terry.

Memorial donations can be given to the Catholic Daughters of the Americas at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The funeral Mass is set for 11 a.m. Friday, March 23, at St. Mary's Church, preceded by recitation of the Rosary at 10 a.m. Private committal will take place at a later date.

“ I remember playing with Tina as a child in Scotch Plains, New Jersey. We loved to play in our backyards and pretend with our Barbie dolls.
I am so sad to hear of her passing.
