

Cindy Lynne McNutt-Kaestner

January 8, 1954 - January 26, 2017

Cindy Lynne McNutt-Kaestner, 63, died on Thursday, January 26 in Philomath. Cindy was born in January of 1954 to Elmer and Audie (Harris) McNutt in Kingsport, Tennessee. Cindy was known as a pastor, chaplain and fabric artist.

She is survived by her husband Richard Kaestner, and daughters Ashley, Brooke, and Heather McNutt- Kaestner. A celebration of life was held at Corvallis First Congregational UCC on January 29.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

JAN 29. 5:00 PM (PT)

First Congregational Church of Christ
4515 West Hills Rd
Corvallis, OR 97330

Tribute Wall

JM

“ I am saddened to hear of Cindy's passing!! She was always so much fun & laughed a lot. I know her family will miss her tremendously!!! I was married to her late Uncle Keith.

jewel McNutt-Garren - February 01, 2017 at 07:49 PM

MH

“ I am one of Cindy's cousins from Tennessee, along with my sister Laura. Laura and I just wanted to let her family know we were thinking of them at this time. Love, Mark and Laura Hoover.

Mark and Laura Hoover - January 31, 2017 at 12:46 PM

IP

“ Sending condolences to the family for your very unexpected and tragic loss. Cindy was loved and respected by all the ladies in our Tuesday lunch group. She was inspirational, energetic, funny and kind and will be dearly missed by everyone. She was incredibly proud of her family and leaves a legacy of strength and faith. Isabel

Isabel Prusinski - January 27, 2017 at 05:21 PM

CS

I just met Cindy within the last few months. We had recently moved back to Corvallis from Seattle. My first day at the water exercise class in Philomath, I was be-friended by Cindy. She was so out-going and made me feel so welcome. Later I thought about how Jesus had said that He was a stranger and you had befriended Him. It turned out that Cindy & I were both attending the same church. She is filled with light, and love. Healing and peace to all of you. Christine Storm

Christine Storm - January 30, 2017 at 07:47 PM