

Dana L Allen

April 19, 1946 - October 26, 2022

Dana Lou Allen passed away on October 26, 2022 at age 76 with her daughter and granddaughter by her side. She was born at Camp Pendleton where her parents were stationed during WWII. She moved to Corvallis to be close to her father Theodore “Cosmo” Allen in 1990 and has been an engaged part of the community since she settled here. She is buried in the Oddfellows Pioneer Cemetery next to her father. There will be a celebration of life on Saturday, April 22, 2023 from 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM at the Westminster House, 101 NW 23rd St, Corvallis, OR 97330.

Dana founded Rebel Farms, retired as the finance manager from the Co-op in 2006, and then launched her home business as the Bread Lady baking artisan bread and delivering it weekly up until the last year of her life. Dana loved community and created and supported it wherever she went. She was a bundle of passion and energy, enthusiastically devoting herself to the people and community around her, and the movements that supported them. She was a vibrant, unique person and she will be missed by all who knew her. “We’re all stories in the end. Just make it a good one.” She certainly did.

“ It was sad to spend this first Christmas without Mom. She loved Christmas. She made lists of presents to give everyone. She would store them in the same Magi box in the closet she'd had for fifty years. She would wrap them, making her own bows from ribbon. She decorated everything. She made beautiful wreaths and swags from tree trimmings she collected outside with her red santa hat on. She made it a special time of year.

“ I do so miss my activist friend and bread lady, Dana. For years we shared many common interests and gradually become friends. I visited her Seavy Street home scores of times for political organizing purposes, to pick up bread and occasionally to exchange food and news. As our political activities wound down I looked forward to her weekly deliveries of food, engaging conversation and the best breads I have ever eaten. Dana's humor, insight and energy are much missed. She cared about our community and entire planet.
