“ I just found out about David's passing. I had the pleasure of working with David at Taco Bell 20 years ago, and always loved running into him along his Ninth Street "route." Dari-Mart, Rite-Aid, just walking up the street. He remembered working with me and would tell anyone within hearing range, "I used to get her to work, you know." He knew so many people in town, sometimes through his police scanner. I was once pulled over for a broken tail light, and the next day, David loved telling me that he knew I was "in trouble." He was still at Taco Bell when my daughter was born, and every time we'd see him, he'd tell her he saw her as a baby. He was a complete sweetheart, and I'll miss David as a true Citizen of Corvallis and all-around sweet guy.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Our loving creator has provided hope and comfort to help us through such difficult times. Isiah 33:24 promises a time when "no resident will say "I am sick".....John 5: 28,29 promises a resurrection.... Rev. 21:4 promises a time when there will be no pain, outcry or even death.....The time will soon come when these scriptures will be fulfilled. In the meantime hold on to the memories of your loved one and prepare yourselves that you may be there to greet them when the time comes.
