

Deborah Luzader Walker

January 11, 1949 - January 25, 2022

On January 25th Deborah Walker joined her husband, William N. Walker in the next great adventure. She was a powerhouse of a woman and will be missed by so many. She is survived by her siblings Patricia Lunday and Kenneth Luzader, her nephews Kevin Lunday, Scott Luzader and Chris Luzader and her daughter Kellie Walker and granddaughter Kevan Walker-Chun.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ Dear Deb, I miss you so much. Will never forget our trips to the coast, watch the blues band, and western band. My memory takes me back to the senior center with all it's diverse members and coffee, coffee, coffee.
Love Jennifer

Jennifer - February 04, 2022 at 02:06 PM

RM

“ Awe Aunt Debbie, you just left us so quickly and unexpected! We are heartbroken 💔 last time I saw you at the walker family reunion, you were so darn cute! Your cute outfit and your rockin boots! I loved them!! Your hot little red car too! It was so fun to get to see you! I'm thankful for those reunions that brought us together. We were friends on Facebook and I loved your posts! Most importantly I know you knew JESUS. So your next adventure is the best! We will miss you! Please hug my Dad and my Sister and tell them how much we miss them too! See you soon!! Love Rhonda

Rhonda Morris - February 03, 2022 at 01:27 PM