

Delbert L. Perdue

August 17, 1924 - March 8, 2014

Delbert L. Perdue, 89 died Saturday at Timberwood Court in Albany. Del was born August 17, 1924 in Stevenson, Washington to parents F. Lynn and M. Willie Blanche Perdue. He served in the U. S. Army during World War II. Del retired in 2005 after a long career driving truck. He will be remembered as man who was a lot of fun, with a good sense of humor and a beautiful smile. He was spontaneous and often would take off on a spur of the moment road trip.

Del was preceded in death by his son, Larry Perdue. He is survived by his wife, Ruth; 6 children; 14 grandchildren; 15 great grandchildren with one on the way.

Private services will be held. The family wishes to extend their thanks to the staff at Timberwood Court for their loving care and support to Del and his family.
