“ I remember Mrs. Barker coming to the old Eddyville grade school in the late 1940's & 1950's to check in on her children...I was envious because she looked like my idea of a perfect mother....and she must have been. Her and her husband raised 5 wonderful children, who I am sure will miss her and have some great loving memories because of her.

“ Dolores and my Mother, Delilah Pearl Butte Hampton were first cousins and stayed in touch by hand-written letters until my Mother's passing. I stopped to visit Dolores probably about 9 years at her home. Dolores was such a delightful lady. So cheerful and upbeat and so pleasant to visit. My heartfelt condolences to your family. Such a Sweetheart will be so missed!
