April 23, 1984 - February 5, 2014

Dominic Jerome Schlundt, beloved husband, son, brother, uncle, and friend to many, died in a car accident while driving home on February 5, 2014. Dominic was born in Corvallis, Oregon on April 23, 1984 and grew up in Philomath, Oregon. He graduated from Philomath High School in 2003. He was a Specialist in the Oregon Army National Guard for six years and served in Iraq during 2009-10. He loved to make people laugh, and he always saw the good in everyone and everything. Dominic loved working on all sorts of projects and could fix just about anything. He loved buying and working on old cars, four wheeling, and being outdoors. He was there for everyone in his life whenever they needed him, whether it was unlocking a door, fixing a car, or providing a listening ear. He was a voice of reason and encouragement for so many in his life.

Dominic was a devout Catholic, attending St. Mary's Catholic Church throughout his whole life. He centered his life and his marriage on God and was active in many church activities. He volunteered for several years with the St. Mary's Youth Program, inspiring teenagers to grow stronger in their faith.

He is survived by his wife Melissa Schlundt of Corvallis; his parents Robert Schlundt of Eugene, and Susan (Bierek) Schlundt of Philomath; his sister Ashley (and her spouse Michael) Hamlet and their three children; his brothers Benjamin, Maximillian, and Samuel Schlundt; his grandparents Maximillian and Sharon Bierek of Philomath, and Carl and Pat Schlundt of Ohio.

“ It seems like just yesterday that Dominic walked into my 5th grade classroom. I actually don't remember if it was at the middle school, or if it might have been the first year the 5th grade had been switched back to the elementary school. After 34 years of teaching, details seem to fade away. What I remember about Dominic was that he really wanted to be a good student. Now that didn't necessarily mean that he always got his homework done. :) But he wanted to be a well behaved good student. And I so appreciated his effort. I so wish I had been able to attend his service, but I have been out of town for several weeks. My prayers go out to all who loved this fine young man. Sincerely, Mrs. Charles

“ To my beloved cousin. You and I always shared A very special bond. The 3 eldest children of your family felt like siblings to me growin up. I always felt fondly of our very special years visiting you all every summer. Playing in the Forrest and creeks. Catching salamanders & snakes. And training Max & Mandy to be circus dogs. We had so muh fun visiting my Oma and opas cabin at the coast, playing card games, beach games, building bonfires, & creating fun videos. You were always such a happy & wonderful caring person with a kind heart. You will be missed by so many, but your memory will live on in the memories we all still hold inside our minds & hearts. God will be waiting With open arms to welcome you to your new home where we will all meet again to share adventures, once again. My most fondest memories from my childhood were visiting my cousins in OR, & we will be able to live them again for all eternity. I love you dear sweet cousin. Rest in peace.

“ The first time I met Dominic was when we were volunteering Middle school Edge for St. Mary Catholic Church in Corvallis. The most memorable moment I have during that time was when he explained the need for confession in our lives. He had a plain white t-shirt on, then had a bag of cheetos. Every time we sin, it is like smearing the cheeto cheese on the t-shirt and when we go to confession, we get to put on a clean t-shirt. He did this about 5 times, and was wearing about 5 white t-shirts on top of each other.

What a great guy. He was my go-to guy for when I needed help with my car. He fixed it on multiple occasions.

Dominic- You will be missed. We will pray for your soul and ask that when you get to heaven (or if you are already there), please pray for us as well.

“ Dominic's passing either seems not real or it becomes too sad for me to think about. My heart goes out to Melissa and the rest of Dom's family. I want so badly to be able to make the sadness go away for them. Constant prayers for you guys for whatever you need--be it comfort, the space to grieve, or whatever. Melissa, you know I live in the city you work in, and my home is open to you if you ever need it.

“ I only knew Dominic for a few years, but what I can tell you is that he is one the most kind hearted and loving people that have come through my life. I loved talking shop and fantasy football with him. He always had a smile when you saw him and he always treated you like part of the family. You will be forever missed and never forgotten. May god take you straight thru the gates of heaven to his loving arms. Miss you and love you forever.

“ I have so many happy memories of Dominic. Even when we disagreed, we would end up laughing. He left a legacy of generosity, self-sacrifice, and true honor. He made so many people feel cared for and valued, and he always had a way of looking out for people. If anyone was down, or feeling left out, or lonely, Dominic would see it before anyone else and subtly step in and help. He was friendly to everyone, no matter who you were. He loved his wife very passionately, long before they were even dating. She was his dream girl, his best friend, and his inspiration. Their love story doesn't end here though, because now Dom can love her with "both hands free". God grant Dominic peace. Dominic, pray for us.
