“ In High School you were known as Rick. You were my first love! I was honored to reconnect with you and meet the wonderful Joan, your wife at our Class reunion in 2015. Now you & Joan are reunited in eternity

You will be truly missed by many, but the wonderful memories you made will live on!

My prayers and love go out to your family!

“ Don (we called him Rick as a family to avoid confusion with our father's name) will be sorely missed and well-remembered. As a kid, he was always the artistic one of the three brothers and continued that all his life with flower arrangements from his beautiful lawns to neighbors, friends, and church events. Luckily during the past 10 years or more we were able to travel with Rick and Joanie to be together in California, Hawaii, Utah, and especially in Colorado several time near our home and the mountains. He dearly loved Joanie and it is reassuring to know that he is now reunited with her.

“ You are so missed, dear Uncle Rick! I always remember you as a dreamer with the biggest heart. I think I must have inherited your optimistic and relentless belief in love. I know you are the life of the afterlife party and you can bet your spirit carries on in all our hearts and your amazing daughter and grandchildren.
❤️, your niece Joy
