

Donald Ivan Gangestad

January 27, 1929 - April 14, 2014

Donald Ivan Gangestad, 85 died Monday at Century Fields in Lebanon. He was born on January 27, 1929 in Armstrong, Iowa to Elmer and Odelia Gangestad. Donald served in the U. S. Army during the Korean Conflict. He married Gloria Taylor in 1959. He was a mover and truck driver for Allied Van Lines for 30 years. He enjoyed gardening and woodworking. He will be remembered for his ability to make others laugh. He brought joy to others, wherever he went, whoever his was with was the lucky recipient of this special gift. He will also be remembered for his artistic wizardry and his ability to craft the simplest thing into a work of art or something useful.

Donald is preceded in death by his wife of 48 years; daughters Kathy Engstrom and Mary Gangestad. He is survived by his children Joyce Gangestad, Mike Barnes, Gypsy Barnes, Bunny Smith, Bill Gangestad, Dee Gangestad and Lee Gangestad; 22 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. A graveside service is set for 2:00 pm, Thursday, April 17th at Bellfountain Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

EL

“ We are sorry to hear of the passing of Uncle Donald. When I think of him, he reminds me of grandpa because he resembled him so much. Our prayers are with you as you heal from this loss.
Ervin & Tammy Lodermeier

Ervin Lodermeier - April 19, 2014 at 11:13 PM