

Donald Tyson Price

July 25, 1945 - May 27, 2025

Donald Tyson Price was born July 25, 1945, in Santa Barbara, California, to Don and Dorothy Long Price. He grew up in Oxnard, California and spent five years on a dairy farm in Arkansas. Don graduated from Hueneme High School in 1964. He joined the US Navy in which he served from 1965 to 1969 on the USS Aircraft Carrier, The Coral Sea.

He and Judy Michalosky married in 1969, and he attended Gavilan College receiving an AA Degree in Aircraft Aviation. Don worked at a variety of jobs as a mechanic, welder and hydraulic engineer. He enjoyed working with his hands, Drag Racing, fishing, and was a master at sarcasm.

Don is survived by his wife Judy of 55 years, four children, Mindy Roush, Heidi (Karl) Jacobson, Tyson (Jennie) Price, and Sunny (Tim) Bennett; two brothers, Jim Price and Steve Price. He was so proud of his ten grandchildren: Matt, Cassi, Michael, Drew, Grace, Xavi, Liam, Liza, Evan, and Cici and two great grandsons, Roghan and Topper.
