

Dyllan Jacob Nanoski

January 13, 2001 - June 22, 2021

Dyllan Jacob Nanoski passed away on June 22, 2021 in Corvallis, Oregon.

Dyllan was born on January 13, 2001 at McKenzie-Willamette Medical Center in Springfield, Oregon, to Joe and Danielle Nanoski. He attended Clemens Primary School, Philomath Elementary and Middle School, as well as Sweet Home High School.

He enjoyed being out in nature, music, gaming, writing, drawing, and spending time with his family and friends. He spent much of his young life exploring and experiencing some of the most beautiful places in Oregon and California with his family. He has always been caring, creative, and adventurous. He had an innate ability to make people laugh. Also, to make people think with his insightful and curious thoughts about life and the world.

Time will ease the grief and sadness of this loss, but no amount of time will dim the importance of his life and the impact he has had on all those who love him. We will be remembered in the light. The warmth of his smile and embrace will forever illuminate the hearts of everyone his energy shined upon.

He is survived by his parents, Joe and Danielle, his sister, Natissia, and brother Nikolai Nanoski. Dyllan is also survived by his grandparents: George and Alma Nanoski and Melissa and Ken Odom; along with numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins who loved him dearly.

A memorial service will be held at 1:00 PM on Wednesday, June 30, 2021, at McHenry Funeral Home Chapel in Corvallis, Oregon.

“ I just read the article in The Oregonian about your case and want to express my sincere condolences that your son did not receive the care he needed. It's a heartbreaking tragedy that should not have happened, and I hope it gives you a modicum of solace to have won your case.
