“ Dear Dixie, Brian, Kari, and family,

Donna and I were saddened to hear of Ernie's passing, but we know he is in the presence of God and we look forward to seeing him again there.

When reflecting, I realized I had the privilege of knowing Ernie for 50 years. Having now been a parent myself, I can look back with appreciation on his patience many years ago with having an extra boy over, tearing up his pristine lawn, sending errant baseballs/footballs/frisbees, etc. to terrorize his amazing gardens, and in all likelihood leaving fish cleaning debris all over his otherwise meticulously clean patio. No doubt his well-organized garage suffered my traveling chaos somehow as well, but he bore it all with patience and good humor.

Later in life he was always glad to see us when we came to town, sharing his big smiles, his time, and his stories, even when our kids were probably being second-generation abusers of his lawn and garden.

When my daughter came to town and lived with her grandmother for a summer, Ernie and Dixie made her feel so safe and welcome when she visited that she still remembers her time with them fondly, even though the years have passed and she has a family of her own.

I feel the loss across the miles. I can only imagine how difficult it is for all of you now. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

With our love,
