“ Edna was a large part of our growing up years in Marion. I loved visiting her Mom and Dad across the railroad tracks. But the best memories were playing games with Gary and Vivian when she got older and cousins, Francie and Duane around the dinner table till all hours of the night and enjoying some sort of cookie or such from Edna. I found her such a pleasant woman, full of zest for life in her later years there on the coast and in Albany. All good memories of a lovely woman.
