

Edward Lanning

October 7, 1947 - June 22, 2015

Edward Lanning 67, of Alsea died June 22 2015

Tribute Wall

KR

“ 2 files added to the album New Album Name

Kimberly Reese - August 04, 2015 at 01:27 PM

TP

“ I met Ed and Jeni through their son Kent back in 2000. I was so heartbroken to hear of Jeni's passing, then when I heard about Ed's I was heartbroken even more. I remember visiting with Ed at Jeni's memorial service. We had talked about getting together sometime for coffee or lunch. We also talked about having my son come help Ed with his yard work once he was on summer break. I was going to give Ed a call the day I found out he had passed on. I was heartbroken. Ed had also told me that he enjoyed watching my kids grow and following me on Facebook. I will forever hold a place in my heart for both Ed and Jeni! I love them both and will miss them dearly! Until that day we meet again in God's kingdom!! Tell Jeni hello for me and that I miss you both!! Rest in peace.

Tara Pearce - June 28, 2015 at 11:57 PM

JD

“ I, like so many was shocked to hear of Ed's passing. I got to know him most recently when Jeni got sick and I was lucky enough to get to spend some time with their family. Ed really loved his family. Ed hired me to do his weed eating for him and we had many lengthy conversations on those days. I will admit sometimes I just smiled and nodded because he was too smart for me. Oh, but when he talked of gold panning I truly understood his passion for it. Ed was a good man. Words cannot express how sorry I am that Kent and Scott have to go through all of this again so soon. It's probably not appropriate here but if I can do anything please call. My thoughts and payers are with you.

Jill DeWolfe

Jill Dewolfe - June 28, 2015 at 10:25 PM

SS

“ I would like to offer my sincerest condolences to Edward's family on his passing. Stephanie is my friend, and having witnessed first hand her excitement of moving to Oregon to spend time with her brother, I was as shocked as she was to hear of his death. Such a sad turn of events for everyone. Prayers for Ed and his loving family in this difficult time.

Sharon Smith

sharon smith - June 28, 2015 at 09:57 PM

MC

“Peace--It does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble, or hard work...

It means to be in the midst of those things and still have calm in your heart.”

Author unknown

Peace be with Ed's family, especially Kent and Scott. These are incredibly difficult times for you, and I pray they pass as smoothly and quickly as possible.

We are thinking of you, sending Peace. Mary Ann Carr, Dale Cox & Family

Mary Ann Carr - June 27, 2015 at 11:15 AM

LG

“I am so saddened to learn that our good friend and neighbor has passed away. I am so sorry for your loss Kent and Scott. I know how much of a shock this has been for me and my kids, so I can't even imagine how shocking this is for you and the rest of your family.

Lori Gray - June 25, 2015 at 07:23 PM

SL

“ My brother Ed was a wonderful person - funny and although not college educated, he was gifted with an incredible intellect. He knew more about more subjects then anyone else I knew and could speak for hours on a subject that was of interest to him. We grew up in Michigan losing our mother to cancer when I was 4 and Ed was 5-1/2. Shortly after her death we left Michigan and moved to California. Upon graduation from high school Ed went into the Navy serving in the Vietnam War. Fortunately he returned home safe, met his wife Jeni and they moved to Alsea, Oregon about 38 years ago. They had 2 wonderful sons - Kent and Scott. Both boys, now men, are a reflection of how much they were loved by Jeni and Ed. In addition to loving his family, Ed loved his pets, his home and property and nature. Jeni's recent passing was very hard on Ed. Despite the seasons their marriage went thru, his love for her was still intact and he cared for her during her illness with commitment to make her as comfortable as possible. His death was sudden and unexpected and leaves those of us who loved him in a state of shock. But I know that God has a plan for all of us and that Ed is in a better place and in the company of those souls who have gone before him. I find comfort in knowing we will meet again. I love you Ed and will miss you until that day comes. Steph

Stephanie Lanning - June 25, 2015 at 03:58 PM

DN

“ Jeni Lanning had been my dear friend for many years when I (and the entire community of Alsea) lost her in January of 2015 after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Ed was one of a number of people who loved and cared about Jeni and who spent a lot of time doing what could be done to make Jeni's last year as memorable and comfortable as possible. His sudden passing was a great shock to me. I send my deep sympathy to his sons Kent and Scott and a sister Stephanie he mentioned often. God bless and may he rest in peace.

Denise Nunez - June 24, 2015 at 12:51 PM

DN

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Denise Nunez - June 24, 2015 at 12:50 PM