

Edward Hoyt Pompe

March 30, 1938 - September 15, 2013

Ed passed away on Sept. 15, 2013, at home in Albany, with his family there to love and comfort him through it.

“Eddie” was born to Ethel and Leo Pompe on March 30, 1938, in Corvallis. He lived in the Philomath/Albany area all his life.

After four years in the U.S. Navy, he met and married Donna Burington in 1962.

He is survived by his wife, Donna; children, Karen and Brian Henschel, and Kevin and Danielle Pompe; grandsons Jarrod, Josh, Brody and Briley; and brother Malcolm.

Ed worked 35 years for Pacific Power & Light, building and maintaining substations.

He will be laid to rest in a private family service at Twin Oaks Memorial Gardens.

Memorial contributions can be made to Hospice or your favorite charity, in lieu of flowers.

Tribute Wall

Jim
Scofield

“ Ed. We will surely miss seeing you around the race tracks, and miss your stories, even if we had heard them before. Glad to know you, and my family was blessed to have gotten to hang out with you. See you in heaven.

Jim Scofield - September 18, 2013 at 02:33 PM