

Elizabeth Lynn White

December 27, 1947 - October 20, 2017

Elizabeth Lynn “Elly” White passed away October 20, 2017, in Junction City, OR, at the age of 69. She was born on December 27, 1947, in Bend, OR; she was a “late” Christmas present, to her parents Mildred Rosella Wyers (later Constable) and Otis Eldon White, both now passed away. She is survived by her son, Marshall Jered White (wife Angela, daughter Savannah, son Peyton), Creswell, OR, and her brother, Curtis Eldon White (wife Doris, sons Michael and Sean), Tucson, AZ, and many other relations in Oregon and across the country.

Lynn never married but the delight and joy of her life was her son Marshall, for whom she sacrificed much to raise him in a loving and responsible manner. She and her mother, Mildred R. Constable, spent much of their lives close to one another and they were truly best friends. After her mother’s passing in April, 2012, Lynn’s health progressively worsened and she had to spend her last few years in assisted care.

Lynn never complained; she always effusively thanked those who helped her. But it was grating to a woman who was so free-spirited, who lived her life large and on her own terms, independent but never insulting, touching many with her humor, her love and her infectious smile, a smile that said “ready or not, here I am.” Elly worshiped at the Corvallis Nazarene and Evangelical Churches and was active in the woman’s bible study group. Elly would want any remembrances to be directed to Healing Hearts Ministry, PO Box 2265, Corvallis, OR, 97339, Karen Bull, pastor.

A memorial service will be held at McHenry Funeral Home, 206 NW 5th st. Corvallis, on Wednesday, October 25 at 1 pm, a light lunch reception will follow.

“ Lynn, as we knew and loved her, was quite a teaser! When our three boys were very young Lynn came to stay with us a couple of days. She brought our youngest some gag gifts and among those was a package of "camel hair" itching powder. Yep, you guessed it, he put it between the older boys sheets! Boy did that cause a stir!!!! Loved you Lynn
