“ I smile when I think of Ellen. She was a joy to work with and truly loved life. I loved listening to her stories of her life's journey. I often would say 'Ellen, you should write a book!', to which she would chuckle and say 'I would, but I am afraid my kids would read it!' And she would shake her head and chuckle. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. She touched many lives while walking her path on this earth...now she is with her Lord, who she loved so much. ❤️❤️

“ Lovely memories of Ellen and uncle Brendan being shown the sights of Co Antrim many moons ago, with me 7 months pregnant and everyone wondering how I was able to keep the pace, her love of our cakes and lace, Ellen and mum attempting to make fadge and soda bread, and the lovely blankets and gifts sent when my baby was born, and blankets still cherished till this day. Rest easy Ellen, give dad a big hug for me ❤️❤️

“ I loved Ellen and will be left with the best memories of her. She was filled with the love of her Lord and was always ready to share that love with others. Her mischievousness made her so fun to be around. I loved working with her and Bill. They kept me on my toes. She will be missed but what a jewel heaven has received.

“ I have a lot of great memories of Ellen "Granny". She had been in Alsea as long as I had been and then became my mother-in-law. Not only was she a wonderful mother-in-law she was a fabulous cook and had a great sense of humor:) She was forever buying clothes and then getting them home and deciding she didn't like them on her but didn't want to return them,so I would get to shop in her wardrobe closet:) As long as I've known her she has loved Jesus and had been born again so we that believe in Jesus as our Savior know where she is now and will see her again when we get to heaven.

Blessings to all her family

“ I was so sorry to hear of Ellen passing on. I had great fun with Ellen over the years and think of her with great fondness...her upbeat humor reminded me of my own Mom. Peace be with you at this time. Mary Ann Carr
