

Eva Kaser

December 16, 1919 - December 27, 2012

Eva Irene Kaser, 93, passed away Dec. 27, 2012, in Albany.

She was born Dec. 16, 1919, in Mitchell and lived her youth nearby, where her father had a homestead on Cherry Creek in Jefferson County. She married Robert R. Kaser in 1938 and for many years they operated a ranch east of Ashwood. She was widely known for her baking and seamstress prowess, and enjoyed gardening with emphasis on flower raising.

She kept in contact with her widely scattered neighbors through canasta and bridge club activities in conjunction with the many school functions at the center of the Ashwood community. After Robert R. Kaser passed away, Eva lived for several years in Prineville and later Corvallis.

She was preceded in death by three brothers and a sister, and is survived by her brother Milton (Bud) Shrum of Prineville; her sons John Robert Kaser of Corvallis and Theodore Arthur Kaser of Henderson, Nev.; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Interment will take place in The Dalles.
