

Evelyn G. Grattan

February 11, 1926 - November 28, 2013

Evelyn Grattan died on Thursday of Alzheimer's Disease in Corvallis. She was born February 11, 1926 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to Walter and Sophie Mahoski, and moved to Amasa Michigan in early childhood. Evelyn married Lt. Raymond L. Grattan of Crystal Falls, Michigan on May 3, 1952. They spent 3 years at Guantanamo Bay Air Force Base before returning to Crystal Falls, where they lived for the next 30 years. Evelyn was an excellent baker and seamstress, and was very involved with the Guardian Angels Church. After retirement, Evelyn and Ray moved to Plant City, Florida and enjoyed many years of golf and gardening, until moving to Corvallis in 2006.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her husband in 2011; her parents; brothers Henry, Joe and Dick; sisters Irene, Jennie and Gina. She is survived by her son Mike (Jackie) Grattan, Corvallis; daughter Tracy (Tom) Crowe, Centerville, Indiana; sister Eleanor (Bob) Goodreau, Iron Mountain, Michigan; granddaughters Brigid Clark and Sara Jackson, Corvallis; great grandson Sean Jackson and many nieces and nephews.

Evelyn will be cremated, and a Mass will be said in her memory at St Mary's Catholic Church in Corvallis.
