

Fay Harwood

November 22, 1959 - May 27, 2012

Fay Harwood of Philomath passed away peacefully with family by her side at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center.

Fay was born and raised in Corvallis; she graduated from Corvallis High School in 1978.

She then married Steve Harwood on Oct. 25, 1979. They were soon blessed with three sons.

Fay enjoyed playing softball, bowling and spending time with her grandson. She loved visiting Multnomah Falls and enjoyed going to concerts with friends. Fay had a smile and a wonderful laugh that were extremely contagious. She was a happy, fun-loving woman who enjoyed rocking out to her favorite band, Matchbox Twenty, and had attended several of their concerts.

Fay had worked at Old World Deli in Corvallis for 30 years.

She is survived by her husband, Steve Harwood; her sons, David and his wife, Denise Harwood, of The Dalles, and Dan and his partner, Tara, and their son, Steven Harwood of Philomath; her sister, Kay Armstrong of Corvallis; and her brothers, Paul and Mark Halligan of Corvallis. Fay was preceded in death by her mother and father, John and Ester Halligan; and her brother, John Halligan Jr.

A celebration of life gathering will take place at 4 p.m. Saturday, June 2, at Old World Deli.
