

Frances Schultz

October 8, 1915 - June 23, 2011

She was born Oct. 8, 1915, in Iowa City, Iowa, to Frank A. and Mary Margaret Jones. Frances graduated in 1938 from the University of Iowa with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. She married Dr. Harold W. Schultz on June 15, 1938.

Frances was an active volunteer for the American Heart Association, the Assistance League of Corvallis, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, the Corvallis Country Club Women's Association (chairman), the Good Samaritan Hospital Auxiliary, the Mid-Valley Senior Women's Golf Association, the Oregon State University Folk Club (president), the Thrift Shop (chairman) and the PEO Sisterhood (president). Frances loved to golf, and was a gifted seamstress, knitter, gardener and stained-glass artisan.

Frances was preceded in death by her daughters, Janet Sue Schultz and Shirley Ann Komlofske; her grandson, Richard Komlofske Jr.; her brother, Frank Jones; and her loving husband, Harold.

Frances is survived by her daughters, Mary S. Leggett and Patricia Edgar; grandchildren, Elizabeth Peterson, Anne England, Debbie Robles, Heidi Komlofske and Jennifer Garner; and great-grandchildren, Kyle Thaw, Jordan Thaw, Hunter Komlofske, Thomas Robles, Nicolas England, Hannah Robles, Marina Komlofske, Perri Thaw and Aiden England.

A private service celebrating Frances' life was held Saturday, June 25, at Oak Lawn Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, please send donations in Frances' name to the American Heart Association.
