Just short of his 88th birthday, Fred Noteman passed away on March 13, 2008, to join family and loved ones who have gone on before him. He will join his parents, Felix and Alice Noteman, his brothers, Felix and Frank, and many dear friends. He has left behind his loving wife of 62 years, Katherine, and their two children, Richard Noteman of CA, Gail Grill of WA, and his half sister Jane Shore of CA. There they developed many close friends while participating in square dancing, trailer outings, the Elks club, golfing, bowling, and many other activities. While a resident at Timberhill Place, Fred enamored many of the residents with his charm, great sense of humor, and captivating smile. He will be greatly missed by everyone.
