

Gary Davis Jarman

July 11, 1936 - September 1, 2016

Gary D. Jarman died Thursday, September 1, 2016, in Corvallis. He was 80. He was born at Baker, Oregon, to Ardell and Dorothy (Davis) Jarman, and was proud to be a third generation Oregonian.

His family moved to Portland during World War II while his father worked in the shipyards, then moved to Dallas, Oregon, where he graduated from Dallas High School in 1954.

He earned a bachelor's degree in geology in 1959 from Oregon State College (now OSU), and a master's degree in geology in 1962 from Oregon State University.

For 35 years he worked as a scientific instrument technician at Oregon State University in Soil

Science, Atmospheric Sciences, and the Computer Center.

His interests included photography, travel, carpentry and computers.

He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Clara (Birchak) Jarman of Corvallis, son David L. Jarman and his wife Toby, grandchildren Zachary and Sylvia, all of Seattle, Washington.

There will be no public memorial service. Contributions in his memory may be made to the OSU

Foundation, sent in care of McHenry Funeral Home, 206 NW 5th St, Corvallis,

OR 97330.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Gary had a strong presence in Strand Agriculture Hall for many years. i worked in that building for nearly 30 years and he was always very friendly and dedicated to his job. I want to extend my sincere sympathy to his family and friends.

---

Judy Modrell - September 03, 2016 at 10:18 PM