

Geneva Lois Regele

October 16, 1931 - September 20, 2015

Geneva L. Regele, 83, died Sunday at The Regent in Corvallis.

Geneva was born Oct. 16, 1931, in Wilsonville to parents Cecil and Eva Chapman. She married William Regele in 1950 at the family home in Stafford. The couple settled in Corvallis and spent most of their married life here. They had three boys: Michael, Robert and James.

Geneva spent her years between home and assisting her husband, William, in the family business. Later she spent time working at the Oregon State University Film Library and retired from the Gazette-Times bookkeeping department. She will be remembered for her love of boating with William in Newport and the San Juan Islands and her passion for service and justice through United Methodist Women.

Geneva is preceded in death by her husband, William Regele, who died in 2010; and her son, Robert, who died in 2011.

She is survived by her son Michael and wife Debbie; son James; and numerous extended family members.

A graveside service is planned for 2 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24, at Robert Bird Pioneer Cemetery in Wilsonville. A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 25, at the United Methodist Church in Corvallis.
