

George Elvin Fisher

September 8, 1932 - December 24, 2014

George Fisher was born Sept. 8, 1932, in Marcola, Oregon to George and Almo (Hileman) Fisher.

When he was a small boy, he and his parents moved to Alpine. He went to school in the Alpine and Monroe area, and worked in sawmills and plywood mills when he was young. Later the family moved to Corvallis, where George worked in service stations and as a mechanic.

Survivors include his wife, Agnes, whom he married Sept. 15, 1950; two sons, Kenneth and Marvin; one daughter, Karen; one granddaughter, Christy Weinhold; and three great-grandchildren, Caile, Luke and Alec. George was preceded in death by his parents, Almo and George; and two brothers, Gerald and Robert.

A memorial service will be announced at a later date.
