

George Schreiber

March 7, 2011 - January 3, 1927

George Schreiber, 84 of Alsea died Monday at his daughter's home in Siltez. Born January 3, 1927 in Portland; he was the son of Henry and Katherine Schmer Schreiber. George served in the United States Navy during World War II and the Korean Conflict. He married Sandra Joy Hendrix on August 2, 1957. The couple had three children Patricia, Verla and Jason. George was the owner/operator of the Alsea Chevron Gas Station for 19 years. He also worked for Publisher Paper, (also known as Smurfitt) of Philomath, retiring in 2001 at 74 years of age. He enjoyed fishing and tending his orchards. When he was 80 years old, he planted a fruit orchard on his property and was able to enjoy some of the fruit produced from those trees just this last year. He had a beautiful singing voice and sang the "Mother's Song," last Mother's Day for all of the Mothers attending the Church of Christ in Siletz. He loved attending and supervising all his grandkids' sports activities. He will be remembered as a loving Husband, Father and Poppy. George will be truly missed by his family and many friends.

Preceded in death by his beloved Sandra, who died in 2007; his son Jason D. Hendrix Schreiber; granddaughter Bethany A. Anderson and great grandson baby Ritchey. George is survived by his daughters Patricia L. and husband Dale E. Anderson, Verla R. and husband John Ritchey; grandchildren Israel D. and wife Christine R. Anderson, Jacob D. Anderson, Katie L. “ *Dear Family,
I am very honored to have met your father... When I travel to Put-in-Bay I was always greeted by your father at the Cliff House, and it was a true pleasure. He was very nice to my family and I. Your family will be in my prayers!*

ME

“ *Dearest Uncle George,
For loving me and for my best memories EVER..... Thank you!
P.S. If you would, please put a good word in for me at supper tonight with God oh and give Aunt Sandy a big hug and a kiss from me, too. I LOVE YOU...*
